EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The applications on prescribed Application Form (Rs.2,500/- non refundable) are invited from the qualified/ eligible candidates having Domicile of Sindh Province for the position of RESEARCH ASSOCIATE ON CONTRACT BASIS at Liaquat University of Medical & Health Sciences, JAMSHORO.

Eligibility Criteria

Minimum Qualification: MPhil, or an equivalent postgraduate qualification representing a minimum of 18 years of formal education, awarded by an HEC-recognised university or degree-awarding institution in Pakistan, or an equivalently accredited institution abroad. The qualification must be in a health & clinical science or biomedical discipline directly relevant to the LUMHS research mandate.

- Candidates holding a PhD in a relevant discipline are eligible to apply and will be given preference.

Publications:

At least two (2) peer-reviewed research publications in journals listed under HEC-recognised journal categories (W/ X). Co-authorship is acceptable, provided the candidate is among the first three authors or is the corresponding author.

- Candidates with publications in W category journals, or with publications as first or corresponding author, will receive additional weightage during the selection process.

Additional requirements:

- Research Methods: Demonstrated familiarity with quantitative or qualitative research methodologies as appropriate to the relevant discipline.
- Statistical Competency: Working knowledge of at least one statistical software package — SPSS, STATA, R, or equivalent — is expected. Candidates must be capable of conducting basic data analysis and interpreting output independently.
- English Proficiency: Sufficient written and spoken English to prepare research reports, correspondence, and manuscript drafts. Communication competency will be assessed at interview. No minimum standardized test score is prescribed.

General Instructions

1. Applications that are incomplete in any respect or received without the required documents shall not be entertained.
2. Research publications, experience certificates, or any other supporting documents submitted after the closing date shall not be accepted or considered.
3. Only shortlisted candidates meeting the prescribed criteria shall be called for test/interview.
4. Applications received after the due date and time shall not be considered.
